Dear Sir/Madam:

Applicants filed the above-referenced application with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on December 5, 2000. This application was co-filed with Application Serial No. 09/730,306 Methods and Systems for generating Documents From Voice Interactions, Confirmation No. 6886. As evidenced from the attached first corrected filing receipt, the Patent Office continues to inadvertently mix these two applications and confuse the files.

On March 6, 2001 Applicants filed the attached request to correct the filing receipt of the above application, and although the Office has partially corrected the filing receipt, the title on the filing receipt continues to be in error. The title should read:

METHODS FOR PEER TO PEER SHARING OF VOICE ENABLED DOCUMENT TEMPLATES

Further, as is evidenced by the attached assignment recordation, the Office has recorded the wrong assignment with this application, the assignment recordation attached identified with Serial No. 09/730,353 actually belongs with Serial No. 09/730,306, and not the present application. Moreover, as previously stated the notice to file missing parts belongs to Serial No. 09/730,306 and not the present Serial No. of 09/730,353. However, enclosed herewith is a check for $65 if the Office continues to believe this is due, which should be sufficient to correct the notice to file missing parts.

Copies of the previous correspondence to correct the filing receipt, the first corrected filing receipt received from the Office, notice of recordation of assignment received from the Office, notice to file missing parts received from the Office, and the originally filed assignment are all enclosed for the Office to review, as well as a check for $65.

Applicants sincerely believe this is a complete response to the Office's notice to file missing parts and to adequately correct the filing receipt on Serial No. 09/730,353 a second time, as well as to correct the notice of recordation of assignment, and correspondingly Applicants request notification of the same from the Office.

Respectfully submitted,

By
